“ I only met Peter once when he was with helping my ex-husband with his cell phone store in North Hampton. He was such a nice guy, and my ex, Joy, thought the world of Peter and considered him to be his best friend. You all have my deepest condolences on this tragic loss. I lost my Mom back in May, and I can completely empathize with your loss. May Peter be resting in peace.

“ Pete "buzykid" Macdonald. One of the best people going. Sad to hear of his passing. A life cut short but for sure he made his mark. Quality moments abounded in his company. I can hear him now singing a Van Morrison or Cat Stevens song with verve and talent. RIP my friend.

“ Peter did and was so many different things for so many different people. He could make the easy task complicated and difficult tasks easy. He truly thought outside the box and would find a way to explain things until you understood. I know he knew how absolutely charming he could be yet I can only hope that he knew how much confidence and laughter he instilled in others and will be missed.

“ Sorry to hear of Pete's passing. One of my favorite memories of Pete and his brothers was working in their garage during our construction of the sled we used to compete in the Klondike Derby when we were all in Boy Scouts together. Pete was as fun-loving as they come! My condolences to all of the McDonald clan.

“ Peter, you will be missed dearly. I spent many times speaking with Peter, he will be remembered as one of the most PROFESSIONAL people I have ever had the pleasure of working with. Peter always made it seem like you were with your best friend when ever you were around him or just talking on the phone. I had the pleasure of spending some time with Peter out in New York several months ago and will hold those memories close. My deepest sympathies go out to Peter's family during this time, we will all miss him greatly.

“ I was able to work with Peter who was my manager but always came in store as a friend. He believed in me and inspired me to just be a better person and enjoy life and translate that into everything I do. And I can only appreciate how amazing it was to be able to bask in Peters brilliant light. My condolences to the family who I know have many wonderful memories to remember him by.
