“ We are so sorry for the passing of such a wonderful man, husband, father, grandfather, and worker and friend to many.
Ray was a very caring man and did a great job on the jobs he did for us.. We loved his humor his stories and his ever faithfulness about his family.

Sorry we were unable to attend, but will remember him in our prayers at Church this week, Eileen we are sorry we were not able to get there.

A great soul has joined the fellowship of his family in Heaven.

“ Our hearts are saddened by the loss of our friend Ray, our most reliable contractor and friend. Though remodeling brought us together many years ago, our relationship grew into one of friendship. Ray was one of a kind. We are so glad we were able to spend time with him and Eileen in Florida this past March. His humor and knowledge will be sadly missed. Our prayers are with Eileen and his family as they come to terms with this great loss. We love you, Ray - now we have another angel to watch over us in heaven! God speed! John and Grace Fleming
