She went on to breed many regional and national champion Morgan horses. Becky's involvement with her hobbies left her with a large extended network of friends who became part of her family.

She was the loving wife of the late Harlan F. Titcomb who predeceased her in 1986.

She leaves six children, Harlan Titcomb, Jr. and wife Margaretta of Palm Coast, FL, Brenda Roy and husband Bob of Seabrook, Ivy Burditt and husband David of Hampton Falls, Dutch Felch and husband Chet with whom she made her home with in Kensington, Kathy Campbell and husband Bryan of Seabrook, daughter in law, Diana Tuttle of Seabrook and son in law Rick Riley of Hampton Falls.
