“ I just found out of Ricky’s passing. I’m so sorry for the loss. I have very fond memories of growing up living next to Ricky until we were around 13 years old. We were best little buddies sledding behind our houses, playing video games, and playing air hockey!He loved that game! I have not seen him in years but he was the nicest and sweetest... love to all his family

“ God, Rick was one of the people who was pervasive throughout my time with Mythical Journeys. Though he didn't use social media, we always had a deep connection with him that would renew six times (and sometimes more) a year. He will live always in my memories as a cherished storyteller and friend.

“ one of my Favorite lines you spoke
“I plead with you, hear my call for history
I plead with you, hear my call for times gone by
I plead with you, hear my call for what is remembered and written”

My loyal friend and genius mentor you taught me so much over the years.

Your legacy and legends live on in the memories and world we helped shape together at LARP.

His mind was brilliant and his soul one of a kind.

For all the years, all the laughs, all the adventures, all the support, all the kindness, all the strength, all the wisdom ,For everything, my friend with love, THANK YOU SO VERY MUCH!

I'll always treasure our time together for, "Time is Eternal and cannot be destroyed!"
