“ Mr. Burns lived a full life and had a heart of gold. Three months after heart surgery he walked across the street to help push a van stuck on the ice. If Pat had known she'd have boxed his ears. Dick Burns was a good man, even though he drove a Chevrolet. I will miss you, Mr. Burns. Very much.

“ My wife Maggie & I met Dick and Pat over six years ago at The Blue Lagoon Restaurant in Sebring Florida watching the Patriot's. I developed a close friendship with him and attended many of his Super Bowl parties on Par Road. I was also an employee of Golf Hammock and saw Dick regularly on the course. He will be dearly missed and my heart goes out to Pat and his children.

There are too many memories to share here. He was always an integral part of my life and that of my mother. I am consoled to think that he is in heaven with the rest of the family, sitting around my grandmother's kitchen table, eating good food and playing cards. Love, Cousin Patty
