“ Oh my, I got to know you for far too short a time. Richard. However, though the time was short, you made quite the impression upon my view of Life and Appreciation of Living it! Thank you.

My thoughts reach out to you, Bev, and your family. May your precious memories surround you, and may he continue to live on within you all.

We were all only in our 20's when our friendship with Dick became a lifelong friendship. He had an influence in where our lives led and for that we are grateful. In this wonderful picture of Dick we can see the twinkle in his eyes! Bev, Nancy, Todd and your family, our deepest condolences. He was quite a guy!! Hugs and our love to you. Audrey and David
