“ One of my favorite memories of Mr. Glennon as I called him, being my friend, Denise's dad, is of him playing the piano for my young children. We lived west of D.C. and he and Mrs. Glennon lived in the city. On occasion, I'd take my son & daughter to visit & Mr. Glennon would play the piano for them. Jason & Katie (ages 3 1/2 & 1 1/2) loved to dance to the Jazz tunes he'd play for them. He was such a performer - he didn't just play the piano - he made it a performance with his exuberant personality. My sympathy & love to all of the Glennon clan.

“ Sending sympathy to the whole Glennon family. I first met Mr. Glennon as a college student; he was the father of one of my dearest friend, Denise. What I remember most about Richard was his extreme generosity. When he and Jackie would visit Denise at Colby, he would always include several other students to explore Waterville's cuisine. His family was also so welcoming when we visited at their Hingham home and later at their Georgetown home. And of course, my introduction to great jazz piano. Rest in peace. Love Colleen Harvey.

“ I got to know and work with Dick when he served as the extremely competent but no-nonsense member and chairman of the Hingham MA Advisory (finance) committee). I was a young, pretty full of myself lawyer; and a back-bencher on the committee. I learned a great deal about managing people and personalities in volunteer activities simply by observing him closely. When years later I ascended to the seat at the head of the table, It was better for the Town of Hingham that I had taken advantage of observing Dick's wisdom and humor. Our family's thoughts and prayers are with you in your time of grief. Bill Salisbury, Hingham MA.

“ I will never forget the time long ago That Mn-Oncle Dick got in touch with a Lawyer in California about an inheritance a property in Maryland from one of Joe's elderly Aunt when she passed away who had wanted Steve to attend the Academy there when he grew up. Mon-Oncle Dick flew over that piece of property to check it out for us after sending him all the info that was required for the transaction.. Now we had to pay Taxes on this land which was useless to us. & didn't know how to go about getting it off our hands. We used to write to her monthly & send photos with news of the valley here & Steve's baby pics. .. She had spent a couple days with us here just a week before Steve was born. She said we were the only ones she would hear from & miss her home from Wallagrass. & to keep the letters coming. She did return here when Steve was 7 years old. Joe & I took her to see her old neighbor here & all they spoke was of their childhood days. These folks are in their 90's. Very interesting conversations of the past. The Lawyer's Wife happen to be one of Ma-Tante Jackie's friend originally from Eagle Lake. here. Was this a co-incidence or what?
. The Lord sure does work in mysterious ways. Mon- Oncle Dick you are certainly one unforgettable awesome man. Going out of your way for us. Yes we will miss you. Enjoy your final journey Home.. Love You always.

“ Dick was a major factor in the life I got to live.

He recruited me from the audit department into the tax department at PMM in Boston. He had a long talk with me, made the offer, and told me to think it over. He called a few days later and asked for my answer. I told him that I was wrestling with it -- one day it was yes, the next day it was no. He asked what my answer was that day -- I said no. He said well then call me back in three days.

He also helped me a lot when after I had left PMM and worked for Melville and then Touche Ross, I decided to explore the possibility of teaching. I ended at Assumption College for thirty-one years.

I have never forgotten what a good man he was.
