“ Ricky I'm so sorry Darlin that God called you home early, but He must have something very important for you to do. You were always so much fun in school, you could get the whole class in trouble from laughing at you. But we loved it. You and Linda know the last time I saw you, you were both my knights in shining armor that night, and I will never forget it, or ever stop being grateful to the two of you for the rest of my life. I have a very special place in my heart only you and Linda can ever fill, and I love you both dearly. All my thoughts and prayers go out to Linda, all your beautiful daughters, and the rest of your huge family. I love this picture they picked out of you because that's how I always remember you except with shorter hair. Find my daughter Kelly and give her a huge love for me Darlin, tell her you have been friends with her mom since 3rd grade.... Keep them all laughing up there, Love you all, Liz
