

Richard A. Kealey

December 25, 1965 - March 1, 2023

Seabrook - Richard A. Kealey, 57, of Seabrook NH, passed away of a heart attack on March 1, 2023. He was a Christmas baby, born in Newburyport MA on December 25, 1965 to the late Robert and Eileen (Wall) Kealey. He was the 5th of 7 children and grew up in Newburyport MA where he attended Immaculate Conception School. He went on to graduate from Bishop Fenwick High School in Peabody MA and the University of Massachusetts at Lowell with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Sociology.

He started Seashore Landscaping providing dependable landscaping and snow removal to many local residents and businesses for over 25 years.

Richard was a quiet and caring person who served as caregiver to his parents in their senior years so that they could remain in the home they loved. He was a huge sports fan, a music lover and an animal lover, particularly of the many German Shepherds throughout his life. He loved gardening and baking, often providing his neighbors with all types of delicious baked goods.

Richard is survived by his sisters, Kathleen, Deborah and Deanna plus his brothers Michael, Brian and Christopher. In addition, he was uncle to several loving nieces and nephews.

Everyone is invited to attend a service to celebrate his life at 10:30AM on Friday, March 10, 2023 at the Remick and Gendron Funeral Home-Crematory, 811 Lafayette Road, Hampton, NH. Burial will follow immediately at St Mary's Cemetery, 36 Storey Ave in Newburyport MA where he will be put to rest with his parents. Memorial donations can be made in his name to NH SPCA by clicking here. (<https://nhspca.org/donate-today/>)
