

Richard S. McDonough

September 7, 1972 - September 18, 2024

Seabrook - Richard "Rich" S. McDonough, of Seabrook, passed away peacefully while surrounded by his loving family.

Rich was born on September 7, 1972, in Newburyport, MA, to Patti-Ann Thurlow and Edward McDonough. As a child Rich loved playing games with his sister Jamie, and riding bikes looking for trouble with his best friend Johnny.

As an adult Rich enjoyed his work at Lindt chocolate in Stratham, where he made many friends. Rich liked to take long rides, listening to his favorite music, while taking pictures along the seacoast to share with family and friends. His favorite thing was spending time with his family and friends, just hanging out talking and making people laugh. But Rich's biggest accomplishment in life was his son Matthew, of whom he was extremely proud.

Rich is survived by his son Matthew V. McDonough of Seabrook, his mother, Patti-Ann Thurlow of Salisbury, MA, his sister, Jamie (Ross) Fairweather and her husband Randy of Seabrook. His bonus brother and best friend John Valli of Sanford, ME, his stepmother Francis McDonough, and brothers, Danny McDonough, Michael Brancaecio, and Anthony McDonough. He also leaves behind several aunts, uncles and cousins. He was predeceased by his first son Ryan Lattime, his grandmother Mildred Thurlow, his father Edward McDonough and his sister Marion McDonough.

Rich will be missed and was very loved.

“ I have so many special memories. Today I was making the bed and thinking of when we would make forts out of sheets. I'm going to miss my brother so much.
