“ I always thought we were related- we were with the tourtellots every weekend! Uncle Dick and Aunt Patty made you feel like like family... Not an empty bed or couch was found on the weekends. Lots of laughs- and tears at times, that's family... On behalf of Fat Freddy and Twiggy, my sister Robin, and my brother Tom, thank you Uncle Dick. Until we meet again, love 'Mike'

“ Sincere condolences to our cousins in NH. Uncle Dick was much loved and admired by all. [To Uncle Dick from Bruce: You were the greatest brother to Dad a guy could have, from teaching him to fight his way out of a jam on the fly, to sharing your motorcycles, to travelling to Worcester last summer to visit him in the hospital and say goodbye. You were always there for him. Two things I will never forget – 1) You gave me my first nickname (Shaving Brush) and 2) Parking you Ski-Doo on the roof of your green Buick Riviera back in '67.] Much love. -Bruce & Catherine

Dick was like a second dad to myself and a large group of (son Ricks) friends while growing up in North Hampton. At times we thought of him more as a big brother than a father figure as he was such a giving, free spirit, void of pretense - full of character. My sincere sympathies to his family and friends, Geordie King-
