“ After Uncle John passed Auntie Rita and I took to the road for six months. She needed to do something, and I needed a driver. We went to every military base in New York and New England, every month. She loved it, the foods, the sights. I loved her so much.

“ Wish I was able to make it to see you one last time. At least I'll have the memories of you and grandpa John. The times coming over to watch movies or swimming or looking over your frog collection. Rest In Peace now and now your back with grandpa John. Love Cassandra Kuntz ❤️❤️

“ Our deepest condolences to Mary’s family and especially to Mary Burns. Both Rita and Mary were employees of Continental Microwave and Tool where they established a friendship which certainly lasted. They were lucky to have each other. That is where I met them too. God Bless.
