“ To Uncle Bob, I was truly blessed and proud to have been able to call You my Uncle for the past 50 plus years. That word "Uncle" is misleading because it implies simply that we were related by a family tree. You were SO much more then someone in my family. You were a friend, a support system, a book of knowledge, and a hero. I loved spending time with You sitting on the deck or at your table just shooting the breeze. I always knew if I needed help You would be there. I was honored to help carry You to Your final resting place today. I will cherish Your memory and all of the things we shared together for the rest of my days. I Love You Uncle Bob! Your Nephew David

“ June, Rodney and Ann. I am so sorry to have read of Bob's passing today, in the digital version of the Seacoast newspapers. The memories really started flowing. I remember attending your wedding with my parents and Bob was responsible for getting me my first ever, fulltime job at J.D. Cahill Company, which afforded me the opportunity to spend 2 or 3 years, deciding what I wanted to do with my life. I feel so lost, stuck here in Michigan when something like this happens. May he rest in peace and God bless you all. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ We love you Bob. Thanks for all the warm hellos, hugs to Nathaniel and Cecilia, and keeping them in line. We all love you - especially Nathaniel, for holding him through his whole first year when his ears were blocked and he was crying if laid down (and we did not know why). God bless you Bob :)

“ Bob will always hold a special place in our hearts. From the day Nathaniel started visiting (3 months old), Bob was his best friend. Bob would hold him for hours and never complain. And Nathaniel included "Juney and Bob" as the first people he prays for during his nightly prayers. When Cecilia heard he had passed, she reassured me: "He was an angel anyway. He was my friend." He was a wise-guy, for sure - cracking jokes and making us smile. The way he loved my children will never be forgotten. Rest in peace, Bob. Our condolences to June, Rod & Donna, Ann and David and the rest of the family.
