“ Pauline Dwyer was our beloved friend, mentor, and role model. We were so happy that she and Bob found each other and built a life together, even though we missed her in Somerville.

“ Bob will be remembered as a kind and loving soul who touched so many of us. Bob baked all our deserts for the last 2 years. He was passionate about the childrens birthday. Every child had a special cake and gift. He joined us at Family Fare at the UMC in Hampton. The children adored him. He will be remembered for his gentle manor and his generosity for the families we serve. It will be very difficult for Family Fare to continue without him. Not only did Bob make all deserts, he also provided food for the families to take home for the week ahead. He never forgot the volunteers. He made us some of the best fudge and cookies. We will all be at a loss without Bob. He leaves many broken hearts. God love and keep you Bob. Enjoy your reunion with your beautiful wife. R.I.P. Bob, we will miss you! Chrissy B.
