“ It took some time to define 60+ years of knowing Bob as Jayne's boyfriend and husband (and my brother-in-law). He was always neatly dressed- shined shoes or unmarked sneakers, not even a hint of wrinkle in his pants or shirt, hair always in place. Hair which took way too long to show any gray or thinning! The really important parts of Bob to me are how much he loved Jayne and all his family, how thoughtful and considerate he could be, and his sense of humor. I really enjoyed our sarcastic side conversations. I know he'll finally enjoy the memories he hasn't been able to know he has. Looking forward to seeing you again, Rick

“ You were our first friends in Hampton all those years ago. Though it's been many years now, I still remember our laughs and giggles. You and Bob were so special. My prayers to you and your family.

“ One of my last memories of Bob was on a trip to the Bahamas with Jayne and Bob (with our brothers for Jayne's birthday) ... it was of the two of them, floating on floats in the pool, holding hands. It was so sweet - the love between them was so present. After so many years together, seeing that deep connection will stay with me forever. ~Judy McMahan
