

Roberta I. Goddard

June 16, 1925 - March 8, 2015

Manchester - Roberta I. Goddard, 89, died March 8, 2015 in Rye.

She was born June 16, 1925, in Lunenburg, VT., to Kenneth and Lila (Bresse) Weir. She grew up in Westborough, MA and graduated from Westborough High School. In 1949 she married Charles Goddard, also of Westborough, MA. Together, they raised four sons while living in Westborough, MA., Salisbury and Merrimack, NH.

Upon retirement, she and her husband moved to Manchester.

As a member of "America's Greatest Generation", she did her part during World War II by working for the 1114th SCU of the US Army at Camp Edwards on Cape Cod which oversaw thousands of captured German POWs. She worked most of her life for the Merrimack school system in the food services department where she established many lifelong friendships and made sure every child had a lunch even if they forgot their money. Her favorite job was the raising of her four children. She loved to cook and was an avid reader who in her later years would read as many as five books per week. Her favorite hobby was spending time with her family.

Her family includes four sons, Charles R. Goddard Jr. of Springfield, MA., Kenneth P. Goddard and his wife Janet of Nashua, Rand C. Goddard and his wife Sandra of Hampton and Barry F. Goddard of Manchester; four grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

She is pre-deceased by her granddaughter Erin Goddard and husband Charles.

Services will be at 10 A.M. Thursday, March 12, 2015 at the Remick & Gendron Funeral Home-Crematory, 811 Lafayette Road Hampton. Burial will be private.
