“ *Dear Marcy and family
I remember Roger he and my husband were great golf lovers. I believe they did golf once together the last time I saw Roger we were both at Shaws there he was with his companion his oxygen tank we spoke for about 20 minutes, holding up the different lines at the fruit stands, but we were able to move aside and continue our conversation so I'm very sad to see that Roger has finally come to the gate of heaven and he will meet up with his Golf Byddy Jack carry on each and everyone and remember the good memories because as I sit here talking and thinking about Roger, I see his smile and I see his garden glowing with all those beautiful plants and flowers and veggies. Grief is hard but memories bring back great joy and that's the glue that holds us together during this time.*
