

Roger C. Syphers

November 17, 1955 - November 13, 2025

Hampton - Roger C. Syphers, of Hampton, born November 17, 1955, passed away unexpectedly on November 13, 2025.

Born in Newburyport, Massachusetts, Roger was a lifelong resident of Hampton, New Hampshire. He graduated from Winnacunnet High School in 1973. Roger dedicated the majority of his life to Seacoast Furniture, where he worked and later managed the business before retiring five years ago.

He was the son of Roger and Liz Syphers, and the brother of Richard Syphers, who is married to Janice Syphers. Roger is survived by his daughter, Madison Syphers, who was the light of his life. He also leaves behind many aunts, uncles, cousins, extended family members, and loving friends who cared deeply for him.

Roger had many passions that brought him joy. He loved playing guitar and singing, and he never passed up an opportunity to enjoy live music. From a young age, he developed a love for motorcycles and carried that joy with him throughout his life, especially while riding his Harley-Davidson. He also had a deep love for animals, which was reflected in the way he cared for them throughout his life. Roger was known for his friendly nature and social spirit—he made friends wherever he went and was always ready with a smile or a good story.

“ I worked side by side with Roger for many years when I was younger. He was such a kind hearted soul, always giving and having a positive greeting when he saw you. I'll never forget his love for sardines, yuk, and the personalized birthday card he would get from Aerosmith each year. He had such a love for music and was always on the concert scene...if you needed tickets you called Roger ;) Roger had an authentic style and was truly one of the Cool guys. I'm glad to have known him throughout my life. My deepest sympathy to his family and friends.

There really are not words “BIG” enough to express our feelings. Death leaves a heart ache nothing can heal, Love leaves memories that no one can steal💔
