

Roland "Ron" Dupuis Jr

June 15, 1945 - May 13, 2015

North Hampton, NH – Roland L. “Ron” Dupuis Jr, 69, of North Hampton, passed away unexpectedly Wednesday, May 13, 2015 at Portsmouth Regional Hospital.

Ron was born June 15, 1945 in Lynn, MA the son of the late Roland L. Dupuis, Sr. and Patricia “Pat” (Lovett) Dupuis. He loved spending time with his wife Dorene and daughter Casey, taking on every adventure that came his way.

Raised in Lynn, he graduated from St. Mary’s High School with the class of 1963. Following graduation he enlisted in the United States Marine Corp and proudly served during the Vietnam War. After his enlistment Ron returned home and became a Massachusetts State Trooper for a number of years before transferring to the Boston Police Department, where he served as a police officer. He was forced into early retirement after being shot in the line of duty in 1976.

Mr. Dupuis was the definition of an entrepreneur, opening up various businesses from Casey’s Hot Dog Empori-Yum in North Hampton to the Old Pompano Pub in Pompano Beach, FL. He was a New Hampshire State Representative for Derry and a member of the Pease Greeters.

The most important thing in Ron's life was his daughter. He cherished the time they had together during his role as a stay at home dad. He was a kind man with an incredible sense of humor who loved adventures and truly lived life to the fullest. Ron never turned away from a political discussion and made new friends everywhere he went. He enjoyed spending time with his family, listening to Motown music, cooking, playing with his dogs Striker and Gwen, and supporting all New England sports teams.

Family members include the love of his life Dorene (Tagan) Dupuis of North Hampton who he shared 31 years of marriage with; his daughter Casey Dupuis, who was his pride and joy; his sisters, Jane Teal and her husband Paul of Naples, FL and Cynthia Kennison and her husband Doug of Peabody, MA; as well as his aunt Jane Gould, and several nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Visiting hours will be held from 5-8 PM, Wednesday, May 20, 2015 in the Remick & Gendron Funeral Home-Crematory, 811 Lafayette Road, Hampton, NH. A memorial service will be held at 11 AM, Thursday, May 21, 2015 in the funeral home. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited. Burial will be private. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Dupuis Family Fund, PO Box 1434, North Hampton, NH 03862.

“ I miss you dad, still more and more every day. Yesterday nana passed away and it brought back so many memories of loosing you. I think about you every single day, and I promise I'm making good decisions. I'm doing everything I can to make you proud. I love you so much daddy. Take care of nana in heaven and please try not to argue too much <3

“ I miss you dad, all I've wanted to do the past two days is call you to tell you about my new classes and show you pictures of my apartment. It reminds me of when I was in first grade and came home crying every day for the first week because I missed being apart from you for so long. I love you dad.

“ I was just thinking of Ron the other day. We were neighbors in Derry. I still live on that same street. We used to wait together at the bus stop for our children in the afternoon.. I was remembering how on Casey's first day of school that Ron followed the school bus in his car. Ron was a wonderful person and I enjoyed seeing him around the neighborhood. Doreen and Casey I'm so sorry to learn about Ron's passing.

“ Dear Dorene and Casey,
Tom and I remember so vividly the wonderful, festive high points that Dorene organized for the family over the years and that meant so much along the way: Motown the musical along with dinner and a Boston hotel sleepover, the fabulous family trips to the Red Sox with wonderful pictures of the three of you and of Casey and Dad, the weekends Dorene would plan at a nice Boston hotel (with fireplace!) to have the full exposure to the city and its best attributes. As well as all the rites of passage for the family: first jobs, graduations, getting into college, getting into a sorority, getting a fancy summer internship. The Dupuis's, and their patriarch, Ron, had a lot to be proud of and he helped make a lot of that happen. Of course he and I often teased each other about politics, since ours didn't overlap. He would recommend that I listen to Fox News to straighten myself out. But I think the main thing we all remember is how fiercely devoted he was to his Dorene and his Casey, whether it was checking that Dorene got to work in the bad weather, or coming over to share a quick lunch. Although of course he didn't love them enough to allow them to drive his new truck! Ron Dupuis loved his family and they obviously loved him back, which is contagious in a good way.

“ After 50 years, our friendship rekindled instantaneously upon seeing each other. Ron still made me laugh as his sense of humor hadn't diminished one iota, and his love of his family, people, and life had grown exponentially. I will really miss seeing him when I visit home. My deepest condolences to Doreen and Casey.

“ Ron was always presenting good ideas on legislation and candidates. He and I had a lot in common and shared many good laughs about life and some of its absurdities. Always enjoyed the time we spent together. He was also a great host at family gatherings. He will be missed.

I hope my achievements in life shall be these, that I will have fought for what was right and fair, that I will have risked for that which mattered, and that I will have given help to those who were in need, that I will have left the earth a better place for what I've done and who I've been.

"C. Hoppe"

Ron, I believe you have done all the above and more. You and your impish grin will be missed. Dorene and Casey were so very lucky to have you in their life.

Ronnie and I shared many common beliefs, our patriotic love of this great country and our pride of being US Marines to name a couple. I will miss our conversations of which we had so many when he would walk the dog by my house or when I'd visit him and have a hot dog or two. His love of life was obvious and his sense of humor and good natured spirit ever present - I will miss his gruff voice and laughter and I considered him a friend. Doreen and Casey you have my heartfelt condolences at the loss of Ron but take comfort in knowing that when ever either, and usually both, of you came up in conversation, Ronnie just beamed with pride and love for you both - you were indeed the most important part of his life and he will no doubt be watching over you for the rest of your days.

He will be missed.
