“ My impression of Ron is that he was a charismatic, ambitious and one-of-a-kind man - "larger than life" - whose strong personality and guiding presence will be sorely missed in my mother's life. On my visits to their FL and NH homes there was always some spirited political discussion, although I think he slightly softened his views in later years (and even admitted watching MSNBC news occasionally, as well as Fox!). One time I got him a birthday card with Obama on it, as a joke of course, but I think he took it quite seriously! Ron and my mother helped each other in various ways, according to their different abilities and in this way they were a solid match, and fairly "joined at the hip." They had their sweet routines, such as movie dates and drives to special restaurants or breakfast spots. I know Ron will be as thoroughly missed as he was deeply loved.

“ Dear Marie,
I guess we all expect for our spouse or family members to die;
however, when it comes it is still a bit of a shock. I still remember our visit to you and Ron in Florida and how gracious you and Ron were. It's hard to believe we have kept in contact since our college days and hope it will continue. Best wishes to you during this difficult time.
Bob and I are still living in and enjoying Tucson. We do travel during most of each summer to get out of the heat.
Please write and let me know how everything is going.

I'm so sorry for your loss. I never knew him but just recently his family put my wife to rest and they did a wonderful job and I helped a family out when I went to the funeral home. So please accept my condolences on your loss and remember he'll be watching over your family.

“ So many memories. He was a character, with a great sense of humor. He was wonderful to his wife, Marie. He was a man who wanted everything to be done to exacting standards, in order to make things simple and beautiful for grieving families. He was gracious and generous to a host of others, including me. I will always remember him fondly, and send my heartfelt thoughts to Marie.

“ There are too many memories to put on a piece of paper. To sad to say much of anything. He came into my life at Winnacunnet. He was handsome,smart and could be funny once in awhile. His friendship meant alot to us. As the years rolled on , we saw him in our most unhappiest times, but he was always gentle and sweet and loving. I will miss you Ron, but take comfort that your sons are just as sweet as you.
RIP my dear dear friend xoxoxo
