“ I will miss you Roy and thank you for the guidance and focus you gave me in life. My fondest memory was the motivation you gave me to excel and never quit, and I have lived by this with gratitude. Every blessing - Peter M & Ghislaine D Galano 06-09-2018

“ I will always remember Roy as being there for the special times with family and friends. Whether he was presiding over our marriage ceremony or cooking the most fabulous dishes it was always a special occasion. Roy truly loved his family and especially his grand children. Sometimes he organized a fishing trip or a day trip on his sailboat, he always went out of his way to make sure the boys had fun and learned something. We will all miss Roy especially during the family celebrations that he so dearly cherished himself.

“ Roy was the best shot I knew whether it was brain shooting an elephant or opposing counsel in the court room. I had the privilege of spending many wonderful hours with him be it hunting, fishing, general vacationing, cooking or sometimes just having a drink and telling stories. Always a battler for people and causes he put up a good fight right to the end. We will miss him.

“ I don't know where to begin when it comes to honoring Roy! He was an extraordinary individual who I always referred to as the 9th Wonder of the World. His accomplishments throughout his life were beyond noteworthy! Roy shared many experiences with me that never would have happened in my life it weren't for him. I was invited to several Chaine events including one at the Wentworth Hotel. Such a spectacular experience! I also traveled with Roy and Mary on his sailboat to Strawberry Bank where he fixed this incredible pork roast on the deck of the boat! I was fortunate enough to be invited to social events at the Whaleback Club in Kittery. Roy prepared his famous pig roast on one occasion which was incredible. Every special moment with Roy always involved food and he was definitely a master chef! I am happy that you are now at peace, Roy, and thank you so much for the magic you brought to my life over the years!
