“ I met Sally when she was at the UU church in Haverhill and I was at the UU church in North Andover. The two parishes combined resources to teach their sex education program, Our Whole Lives (OWL). Sally and I were both volunteer teachers for the program. She was a delight to work with. Always in a good mood, truly cared about the kids, fun to work with. That was MANY years ago, and I have since moved to Denver, but I still remember Sally fondly. My best wishes to her sister Marty and to her two sons Luke and Jess.

“ Sally was a light in a very difficult time for my family and our church community. I will always hold Sally in my heart with love and her dedication to the spiritual and emotional well-being of children (and adults) continues to guide and inspire me. She is so missed, and I am forever grateful to have been blessed to know and love her.

“ I met Sally when I served as the religious educator at the First Parish in Marblehead and she was the religious educator for the First Parish in Haverall. Sally struck me as the perfect person to be a religious educator because she was so knowledgeable, and caring. Anyone could tell that she loved the work that she was doing, and she loved the congregation that she was serving. She was a true caregiver.

Sally was both beautiful on the outside and the inside. She is a person you would describe as "the good heart." She was always willing to share resources and you could readily feel that she put her soul into her work.

The worship services that she created at our monthly DRE meetings were inclusive and extremely creative. I remember one that included an ice sculpture what just blew me away.

My dear friend and colleague, I will miss you. You left this world far too soon.

What a lovely tribute to a life well-lived full of service and fun! But far too short. So happy to have had the opportunity to spend time with Sally and her beloved family at Ferry Beach and beyond, she was always welcoming to all. So glad to have known her. We send deep gratitude and love to Jess, Luke, Charlie, and Sally's extended family for your dedication to her good care during such a difficult time. Kris and Pete GD
