“ *Sherry and Loopley Family,
We are all so sorry hear hear the sad news.
Know that Sasha is in our prayers at Saint Martha School. We always enjoyed Sasha's beautiful smile each time she was at school to pick up Olivia. Like Sasha, Olivia is a beautiful gift.
Peace, Ann Sarpu & The Saint Martha School community*

“ Dear Loopley Family, hello. I am so sorry for your loss. Please accept my deepest condolences at this sad time. Please take care! Rhonda mov1315@yahoo.com

The faithful man Job said: “If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? . . . You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.” (Job 14:14, 15) This denotes God’s earnest longing and desire. (Genesis 31:30; Psalm 84:2) Clearly, God must keenly anticipate the resurrection.

Can we really believe the resurrection promise? Yes, there is no doubt that God and his Son are both willing and able to fulfill it. What does this mean for you? You have the prospect of being reunited with dead loved ones right here on earth but under very different conditions!

“ Dear Sherry and family, Words are all we have to express our sadness, yet they seem so small in your grief. We are keeping you and Sasha in our thoughts and prayers. May you find comfort knowing that so many cared for Sasha. I treasure her visit in November. We will call upon our return. Love, Sheila and Bob

“ Dear Tommy and family,
We were very sorry to hear of Sasha's sudden passing away. She was so young and beautiful, with so many things to experience and lives to touch. We will have you and your family in our thoughts and prayers. May fond memories of happy times and laughter with Sasha help to ease your sadness and grief.

Love,... Joan Reinhold, Donna & Jim Doyle.

“ Sherry & Family,
My heartbreaks for you and Olivia. I will always be here for you. I know Sasha is with the angels in heaven. She will be sadly missed in her physical presence but lives on through Olivia know that. Sasha was special her laugh, warmth and beauty all came natural along with being a mom.

Love always,

Barb,

“ Sasha was my daughters toddlers teacher. I just remember her always having such a warm demeanor and an overabundance amount of energy. She loved Olivia very much and fought hard to give her a good life. The world lost a kind soul. May you find the comfort you need to carry on and keep her memory alive.
