

Sharon M. Lamothe

October 22, 1954 - May 5, 2025

Sharon M. Lamothe, 70, of 180 Walton Road, Seabrook, NH, passed away peacefully on Monday, May 5, 2025, at Exeter Hospital, surrounded by her loving family and friends.

Born on October 22, 1954, in Newburyport, MA, she was the daughter of the late Gerald and Marie Kay and a lifelong resident of Seabrook.

She spent many years working at Baileys Corporation before its closure, after which she continued to share her talents as a skilled interior painter in the local area. She loved trips to Las Vegas, playing bingo and cards, and spending cherished time with her granddaughter and great-grandson. She was also an active member of the Happy Seniors Club of Seabrook.

Sharon was the devoted wife of the late James Lamothe, her beloved husband of 40 years, who passed away in 2016.

She is survived by her son, Brad Lamothe of Seabrook; her daughter, Sarah Lamothe of Myrtle Beach, South Carolina; her granddaughters, Brianna Lamothe, Kalysta Lamothe, and Alani Lamothe; and her great-grandson, Noah McCormick. She also leaves behind her siblings, Joey Kay, Brian Kay, and Myrtie Lowe. Sharon was predeceased by her sister, Lisa Frascone.

A graveside service will be held on Saturday, May 10, at 11:00 a.m. at Hillside Cemetery in Seabrook. All family and friends are warmly invited to attend and celebrate Sharon's life.

“ My thoughts and prayers for all of Sharon's family and friends. I've know Sharon and her brother Joey almost my entire life, and it breaks my heart to hear of her passing. My mother was extremely close with her Mom, and Dad. I still remember the last time I saw you, it was at Shaw's in Seabrook. Old friends are the best because years can pass, and we go on with our lives, but when we run into one another we can pick right up where we left off. Rest in Peace my friend, rest in Peace, Love Liz

It is so hard to let go of family members, especially a cousin as wonderful and loved as you were in my heart, but your struggles holding on are over now and for that I am grateful to God for bringing you home to eternal peace. Dance and Sing with the Angels and all of your Family and Friends who are there waiting for you!

“ My Dear Friend, I'll always remember the time we met working in the auto factory. We became very good friends and loved having fun. We loved our luncheons with a few drinks! I'm sorry I didn't get to see you before now. I love you, missed you these past years and will treasure the times we spent together. Sarah and Brad, I'm very sorry for your loss.
