“ So sorry to hear of Shirley's passing. I have fond memories of times spent with her. She always had a smile! Saw her a year ago and we had a nice talk. We got caught up and shared a few laughs? I hope the many warm memories you all have of her give you peace. Sending love, Robin Russell Damuth.

“ I used to enjoy Shirley's stories about her and my mother, Betty, when they were growing up. We would laugh about so many things, like when the local dairy farmer complained to Papa that Shirley had been riding his milk cows. Great for his milk production. She was full of life, laughter and love. And a bit of mischief too! I will miss her greatly.
