“ My sincerest condolences to Cheryl and her family. To Glynne, the last survivor of her immediate family, I pray she can come to peace; and to Marilyn, his last surviving aunt on his mother's side, I grieve for her loss.

Stephen was very much a big brother figure for me. He used to come up to our Tasker Hill house in Conway, and stay for a few weeks in the summer, and he would babysit us. Later, we would come down to Hampton and spend a few weeks in the summer, 7-9 of us in that apartment...3 kids sleeping on lawn chairs. Many good memories. I know he is with three of my favorite people in all the world; his mother and father, as well as my dad...all taken from us too soon. I miss them all. Godspeed Stephen!

“ I have known Steve and most of his family all my life. As I get older myself, I know that it is very sad to watch good people we know leave us at such a young age. It reminds me that life is precious and one should live life to the fullest. Steve was such a good person who was very loyal, not only to his family but his friends as well. I know that he is in a better place now and when you think of him, he will be there, either in your memories or your dreams. For Cheryl and Scotty, I am truly sorry for your loss. God Bless.

“ *As big a family as we have, the cousins always seem to have very separate lives, but are always so close. Stephen always had a smile, a good word, much like his Dad (David) and his Mom ( Marg). We will miss you Stephen, save a warm place for us all.
