“ We celebrate a truly good man who has always been kind to others with his words and his willingness to help someone in need. Today we are sad to not have this man to talk to, laugh with, hold onto, share a thought with, say I Love You, ask something of. It doesn't matter what it might of been but Steve has touched many lives in so many ways that he will be remembered and missed always. Love Brian, Laurie, Nicholas and Kacey

“ I send my deepest condolences to all your family and friends. We all will miss you Steve. You were a great man of God who has created such a amazing legacy throughout our church, your family, friends, and this town. The food pantry, celebrate recovery, summer dreams would have never existed if it wasnt for you and your wife's persistence and obedience to the Lord. I could go on and on but their are really no words to say to express how great of person you were. Thank you for having faith in me and always being there when I needed a friend. I will keep the memories in my heart forever. Until we meet again..

“ I love you so much daddy. My heart is in a million pieces, though I know yours is whole again. It hurts so much to be here without you. But I will thank god everyday that he gave me the opportunity to be blessed with you as a father. I wish I could have kept you longer, as I still need you here with me but i know you are not in pain anymore and somehow I will find piece in that. I will never know a tougher more amazing man than you. Thank you for letting me call you my daddy. I love you beyond words. ❤️

Prayers and sympathy to Steve's family, loved ones, and friends. Steve was my friend. He taught me that "Things happen to you when you stick your head up and try to do things for others, but nothing gets done and nothing happens when you keep your head down." I will miss Steve so much.
