“ I am just sadly learning of my cousin Sue's death. Sue was the oldest of our eight cousins who loved celebrating holidays and summers together in a very big old house surrounded by castle walls. We understood that Sue had her own 'turret' by a pond. We looked up to Sue with affection and respect. Her love for horses inspired us. She died just a few weeks after Uncle Steve's 93rd Birthday, but we couldn't reach her upon his death when we called. Her memory will live on in our family.

“ Hope Susan is riding horses in the sky. We were friends during high school and our friendship meant a great deal to me. We graduated a grew apart but her spirit will always be in my heart - Laurel Klick
