

Tammy J. Marshall

May 1, 1966 - October 17, 2015

Kensington – Tammy J. Marshall, 49, of Kensington, former longtime resident of Seabrook, died Saturday, October 17, 2015 after a sudden illness.

She was born May 1, 1966 in Exeter a daughter of Jean E. Falconer of Seabrook and the late William Mann.

Tammy was the loving wife of Scott T. Marshall.

Tammy attended Winnacunnet High School. She enjoyed spending time with her two daughters, Robbi-Lyn and Shaylah Marshall and her granddaughter Kailah Grace. She is also survived by her two sisters, Tracie and Shelly Falconer and her maternal grandparents, James and Doris Falconer of Kensington.

Visiting hours will be held from 5-8 P.M Wednesday, October 28, 2015 at the Rand Memorial Church, 134 South Main Street, Seabrook. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited. In lieu of flowers donations may be made to www.gofundme.com/tammymarshall. Assistance with the arrangements was by the Remick & Gendron Funeral Home-Crematory, Hampton.

“ I have a lifetime of memories that I will treasure forever. Anyone who knew you knows that you were a gentle, kind, giving soul that had a huge heart and smile so bright that it could light up the dark. My heart is so broken but 'm hoping the memories will help ease the pain. You were taken way too soon but now you are another one of god's angels watching over us. Don't be afraid to show me some signs now & then that you're still with me. I love you always my bestie, my stuck like glue, my 3 Muskateer RIP & Fly high girlfriend ..Until we meet again ..Moe
