

Tashia L. Souther-DiTucci

September 8, 1983 - April 25, 2019

Concord - Tashia L. Souther-DiTucci, 35, of Concord, formally of Seabrook passed away peacefully in her sleep on April 26, 2019.

Tashia was diagnosed with CHF 9 years ago and fought a courageous battle more so in the past five years including a heart transplant in 2015. Tashia loved going on adventures including camping motorcycle rides, tubing on the river anything to do with the outdoors. She loved go carts, family game nights, concerts, and was very passionate about family gatherings. She loved the Red Sox and the Patriots. She loved spending all her time with family and close friends even if it was just snuggling and watching a movie. She especially loved spending precious time with her children and granddaughter Aria.

Tashia leaves behind her three children, Jayleigh and fiancé Serena DiSciscio, Jason and James DiTucci all of Concord, her sister Miryah Eaton, a step brother Chris Ellis of Seabrook, her mother Debbie Souther Rhoades and husband Terry, her father Francis R Ellis, Jr. and wife Hillary, her nieces and nephews Yoryi Keiyani and Keimyah of Seabrook and her cousins SkylInn and Tristian Emond.

Others Tashia loved as nieces and nephews include AJ, Alani and Brayden. More like a brother and sisters are her cousins Kaitlyn and Paul Souther and Erica Perkins, her best friend, her granddaughter Aria and her parents Kaite and stepson Jr. Perkins. Also stepson Sean Perkins and Zachary Provencher whom she thought of as a son, her special love in her life “the Michelin Man” Scott Perkins, her aunts Lynda King, Angel Hussey, Julie Colella and her uncle Bernard Dow, her grandparents Donna Perkins, Marvin Perkins, Paula Souther and Francis Ellis Sr.

She was predeceased by her grandparents Annie Souther, Leroy Souther, Sandra “Pooka” Randall, her stepfather Scott Eaton, uncles Paul Souther, Keith Eaton and Leon Ellis.

Tashia was very well loved and is the piece of the puzzle that will always be deeply missed by all who knew her.

Visiting hours from 4-6 P.M. Thursday May 2, 2019 at the Rand Memorial Church, 134 South Main Street, Seabrook with services immediately following at 6 P.M. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited. In lieu of traditional remembrances donations may be made to www.gofundme.com/f/tashias-funeral-services.

“ My name is Kim Polanec and I was Jason’s 5th grade teacher and currently, James’. My heart goes out to these two boys, as well as the family and friends who are suffering due to this tragic and sudden loss. She was a great lady, cared deeply about her children, and understood and appreciated how dedicated I was and continue to be to her boys. Please know you are all in my heart and thoughts...sending huge hugs to my “Jamie”. Hang in there buddy...

“ Tashia You were such a pleasure from the time you were a little pioneer girl, until your last day here on earth. I know all the angels are rejoicing now that your home with the Lord. My heartfelt prayers are with all your family, and friends, and especially your children. I will see you soon Darlin, Life here on earth goes by so quickly. It seems as though certain people that pass here in Seabrook have a bigger effect on all of us left behind, You Darlin are one of those people. Love you my girl
