

Teresa Diana Hay

January 11, 1922 - November 14, 2025

Seabrook- Teresa Diana Felch, born in Seabrook, New Hampshire, January 11, 1922 and died peacefully surrounded by family November 14, 2025.

She was predeceased by her parents Sadie B Johnson and Ernest Felch, her beloved husband, George W. Hay and the last of seven siblings.

She is survived by her devoted son, Richard George Hay of Corpus Christi, Texas and grandson Richard G. Hay of Austin, Texas, and beloved by many nieces, nephews and friends.

She graduated from Newburyport High School, Maulden Hospital School of nursing and served in WWII as an Army nurse in France. She later worked as a school nurse in Hampton, Hampton Falls, Seabrook, and South Hampton, New Hampshire.

She enjoyed hiking, cross country skiing, travel and daily walks by the ocean with her husband in their retirement years.

The family would like to acknowledge sincere gratitude to all those who supported their mother over the latter years, to allow her to live in her own home until the end; where she was the happiest and gave us memories that will last forever.

At Teresa's request, all services will be private. If desired, donations may be made to the Hampton Falls Volunteer Fire Department.
