“ Terry was a very good of my brother Ricky. Many good memories of growing up with him & all the guys in the Projects ! One of my favorite memory of him is when he and Steve were fighting (as brothers do sometimes) he was saying NANaNaNaNaNa Batman ! The Old Batman & Robin TV show... Sorry Steve ! By the way he was one of the GOOD guys from Brookway Court side of the Projects not the BAD side Chesterbrook !!

Just kidding....I'm sure we all miss the OLD days !

“ Terry was our angel. It started with a heating installation contract, Over the years we became close friends with many visits to our antique house, helping with various projects. In fact he bailed us out of problems more than once. Every time we called he came no matter the hour. Spending many hours sitting at the kitchen table, drinking coffee and eating cookies, we became close friends. We eventually met Tracy and Andy and watched as Andy grew from a young boy into a strong young man who found his lovely Natalie. Our Angel left a legacy and we're so glad that he was a part of our lives. He was one of the best men we've known and we're grateful to have known and loved him. Be at peace, Terry Angel.

“ Terry was a wonderful friend during our growing up years in Chesterbrook. Brian will always remember all that they shared together and treasure the gift Terry gave to Brian's son, Ricky, his first and only pair of Celtics sneakers. And Ricky still has them 28 years later.

Thinking of the family during this difficult time. And hope that your memories comfort you in the days ahead.
