“ Terry, you were an amazing man of God. You had a heart of gold and helped everyone in anyone that you could along your journey. You made an impact on my children’s lives as well as my own. I am blessed to have known you and am so happy that you are now sitting at the throne of God, with our Lord and savior. I have not lived in New Hampshire in many years heard of your passing when I was home this past week. It saddens my heart for your wife, Lisa and your children who I know adore you and I am sure your grandchildren miss their Papa. “ There are too many wonderful memories to count. Even more important is the man he was. A lover of Jesus, a worshipper, a musician, a friend, a grandfather, a father and a husband. He excelled at all of them. Our wives would roll their eyes when we got talking because it could go in for hours. We raised our kids together and built a church together. Enjoy your eternal reward my friend. You earned it. You will be very much missed, I know I'll see you again on the other side. Love you brother. ❤️

“ I was truly saddened by the news of Terry's passing. How could this larger than life man have left us so quickly? My condolences to his family for their loss and especially now at this Christmas season. During my 20 years at Seabrook Middle School, I remember Terry walking into my classroom, where he would point his laser thermometer toward the ceiling, and tell me the temperature in my room was perfect. He would also add wasn't I lucky to be so warm on this cold day.

Ahhhh - now that is a warm memory.

My last conversation with Terry this year was him asking me what I had planned for retirement. He told me he couldn't wait to retire and he was going to take his camper and drive all over the United States. He would plan out all the places he wanted to visit. Terry was very enthusiastic about these future adventures.

Somehow his next trip took him back to his heavenly home.

However, we can be sure that he will never be gone as he continues to live in the hearts of all his family and friends.

He is unforgettable in all the best ways!

“ Terry Bragg was a committed Christian man who loved the Lord Jesus Christ and was a dedicated family man who also loved his family and cared for them dearly. He was also an awesome friend. If anyone needed help he was the first one there to meet your need. Terry was also the president of Seabrook Village co-op and was so instrumental in the growth of the Mobil home park. How the the village will get by without his leadership is going to be difficult. He alway went above and beyond which one could expect of him he was always there to meet all our needs. He will dearly be missed. My heart goes out to his wife his childhood sweetheart Lisa and his loving family May our lord comfort them and give them the strenth to walk through this most difficult time. He will dearly be missed. We love you all Cindy and Victor. God bless you

“ My heartfelt condolences to Terry’s family. He was a kind and caring man who always did the right thing and saw the good in everyone. I will miss his weekly chats which consisted of a few minutes of business and many more spent in laughter and stories. I always knew when I heard his voice on the other end of the line that my day would be a little happier. He has left a huge void but we are all better for knowing him and I will miss him dearly.

Terry's ultimate goal was to see Jesus face to face and I am sure he is sitting at His feet or probably playing his guitar and singing at His feet. I love you Lisa and family. I taught at Seabrook Elementary for 37 years. I was fortunate to teach Danielle where I first met Terry and Lisa. They were outstanding parents and very supportive of the school. It was my pleasure to work with Terry as a maintenance facilitator at Seabrook Elementary. He will be missed as he was a caring, loving and compassionate person.
