“ Mary and Clay: Sorry to hear of the loss to your family. When a loved one moves on the pain and void left behind can be overpowering. Just take each day as it comes and pray the next one will be better. You will be in my thoughts and prayers. Sometimes you think the void will never get better. My void for Chris is so deep some days I just can't get out. Other days are much better and the feeling of a great love carries us through. May God bless each of you. May his love carry you through. Love Dennis and Bertha
