

Thomas F. Gardner

March 15, 1952 - September 25, 2018

Hampton – Thomas F. Gardner, 66, a father, a son, a husband, an artist, a wit, a kind voice, and a friend, of Hampton, died peacefully on Tuesday, September 25, 2018 at the Exeter Hospital.

He was born in Newton, MA on March 15, 1952 the son of the late John and Mildred (LaFort) Gardner.

Survived by his two children, TJ Gardner and wife Michelle and Lauren Gardner and her husband Blaise and their mother Meg.

He will live on in the paintings that he has given to so many and the kind words and memories that he has shared. If you ever find yourself thinking of him or missing him, all you need to do is close your eyes and listen. Here you will find his soul singing in between the notes of every blues guitar riff, his spirit dancing on the crests of crashing waves against the rocks of the lighthouse above, and his memory in the hearts of all those who knew him, waiting to be shared with others through every kind deed and loving gesture that we make.

In addition to his parents he was predeceased by his sister Justina.

All service will be private.
