

Thomas L. Haggerty, Jr.

June 17, 1941 - January 20, 2017

New Durham - Thomas L. Haggerty, Jr., of New Durham, formerly of North Hampton, died on Friday, January 20, 2017, at Wentworth-Douglass Hospital following a courageous battle with cancer.

Tom was born in Amesbury, Mass. on June 17, 1941, the son of the late T. Leo and Irene Haggerty, residents of Hampton at the time. From his earliest school years until his marriage in 1971 to Emily Nichols -- the girl next door since 1968 -- he resided in Marblehead, Mass. They lived in Salem and Salisbury, Mass. before settling in North Hampton in 1979 and retiring to New Durham in 2001. Tom graduated from the University of New Hampshire in 1963 and received his Master's Degree in Education from Cambridge College in 1993.

Tom's career as an English teacher began at the St. James School in Berlin, CT, followed by ten years at Newman Preparatory School in Boston, 25 years at Winnacunnet High School in Hampton, and finishing with additional terms at Traip Academy in Kittery. From 1985 to 1998 he was an active member and head usher at South Church in Portsmouth. Although considered retired, Tom spent the past 15 years working part-time at The Book Outlet in North Hampton. He also enjoyed gardening, tutoring, and writing; most recently for a local weekly, The Baysider.

Tom's legacy will be that of a cherished friend and colleague; beloved father, husband and uncle; and inspiring educator and mentor. He was an entertaining, witty, gentle, and generous man whose warmth and enthusiasm made those in his presence feel valued and respected.

He is survived by his beloved wife Emily, and their daughter, Susanna, and her husband Robert Murphy of Mountville, PA. Tom also leaves his sister-in-law, brother-in-law and their spouses; many adored and adoring friends; and an extended family of treasured cousins, nieces, nephews, and their spouses and children. He was predeceased by his parents and his sister and brother-in-law, Nancy and Gilbert Dempsey.

Visiting hours will be held on Friday, January 27, 2017 from 4 to 7 p.m. at the Remick and Gendron Funeral Home 811 Lafayette Rd., Hampton. A 'Celebration of Life' memorial service will be held Saturday, February 4, 2017 at 2 pm at South Church, 292 State Street, Portsmouth, NH. All are welcome. Memorial donations may be made to the charity of one's choice or to any of the scholarships within the Winnacunnet Dollars for Scholars, Inc., P.O. Box 1593, North Hampton, NH 03862-1593. (Please note in the check memo that funds be directed to the Thomas L. Haggerty, Jr. Memorial Scholarship fund.)

“ *Dear Emily & Sukey:
How saddened we were to hear of Tom's passing. We loved being around him at South Church - he had the knack of making one feel happy no matter what was going on in their lives. His sense of humor was unsurpassed! I loved seeing at the bookstore as well.
Our hearts are with you,

“ *Dear Emily, Sukey, and family,
I will miss seeing Tom. Although we saw one another occasionally, I'll never forget how his smile and gentle and kind manner made our visits so enjoyable. He was a wonderful person, an outstanding educator, and friend to many. I hope that your fond memories of times shared will sustain you during this most difficult time. Although I will not be there today, please know that I plan to be there for the special ceremony to be held around the time of his birthday. Love, “ Dearest Emily and family...

Bruce and I are very sad to learn of Tom's passing. He was a wonderful neighbor... no matter how much lawn he had left to mow, if I can over, he would stop to visit! He was always very nice. May the comfort of loved ones keep you surrounded in love at this time. We are thinking of you all.

“ To Emily and Sukey;

Please accept our heartfelt condolences on Tom's passing. We will cherish many fond memories of "Nancy's Little Brother". He was a Good Man, and his life was well-lived.

May he now enjoy his Eternal Reward, and be reunited with family members that have gone before him. What a reunion it must have been!

We will keep you in our thoughts and prayers.

Much Love,

“ Sorry to hear of Mr. Haggerty's passing. I remember him from WHS my senior year English class Satire and Humor. Taught me how to find humor in all walks of life. No matter how dark it may become, humor is there to bring light. Rest peacefully you lessons have been taught.

“ What a beautiful man. I met him at a Shakespeare class at Winnacunnet - and was smitten from the start. So smart - so full of life. He would always play the leading male in any play that we read - so fun and a wealth of information. I will miss his smile at the bookstore! Rest well Tom - Heaven is going to love you!

Paula Munch - January 25, 2017 at 08:58 PM

“ Mr Haggerty, I never got to thank you for introducing me to Shakespeare, for giving me the opportunity to 'act out' during class. Some of my fondest high school memories were standing at the front of your class exchanging lines with classmates and laughing as we tried so hard to stay in character. Almost 40 years later I still draw on those memories as a source of comfort and joy. Thank you for the gift of literature.

“ Haggerty Family,

I lovingly called him 'Tommyyyyyy' and he would call me 'Bridgieeee'...(a name only a few use)....it was our pleasure to work with him at WHS. I personally, learned a great deal watching him work the room, with his 'kids' at WHS. He was the colleague everyone loved..and the friend we all treasured. It was pure joy seeing him at the Bookstore all these years.

Cancer may have taken him, but we all hold the best of him in our hearts and minds.

How fortunate for us that he was in our universe..which will never be the same..and aren't we all glad that he came.

May the road rise up to meet him..and the angels welcome him with open arms...as he has a story or two to share with them.

Thank you to his family for sharing him with us. May his loving smile, quick wit and kindness stay close in your hearts forever and carry you through this tough time.

Peace to our friend.

Love,

“ My deepest condolences to Mr. Haggerty's family and friends.

*Mr. Haggerty was the kindest soul and I am so grateful I had him as my English teacher. He made me fall in love with Shakespeare and the English language. I always made a point to see him at the bookshop when I would return home to visit. The last book he recommended to me was The Goldfinch and I'll always remember him when I think of that book, and it's 800 pages. :) He was right - I loved it. Thank you, Mr. Haggerty. The gift you've given to me and all of your students, will never be forgotten.*

“...and at some point, deep in the night, when we were winging on the jungle gym and showers of sparks were flying out of our mouths, I had the epiphany that laughter was light, and light was laughter, and that this was the secret of the universe.”

“ My deepest sympathies to Mr. Haggerty's family and friends. He was an amazing teacher who truly cared for each and every one of his students. I will always remember the special friendship that he had with Mrs. Becky T. the two of them made English class fun! After high school I would drop in the bookstore every now and then to say hi and he always had a smile and great recommendations for books!

You will be missed, but not forgotten.
