

Thomas Wayne Juckett

February 25, 1954 - January 30, 2026

Seabrook – Thomas Wayne Juckett, 71, of Seabrook, passed away on Friday, January 30, 2026. He was born in Camden, New Jersey, on February 25, 1954, a son of the late Thomas and Rose (Hensen) Juckett. Tom shared 40 loving years with his partner, Rayann Brown at the time of his passing.

Tom attended high school in New Jersey and worked as a painter for many years; a trade he took pride in throughout his life.

He enjoyed golfing and was an avid fisherman. One of his greatest joys was visiting Indian Head in Lincoln each year with his granddaughters. His family, especially his granddaughters, were the center of his universe. Above all else, Tom cherished the time spent with them.

Tom didn't need to be anything more than himself. He was simply "Tom" — genuine, steady, and comfortable in his own skin. Those who knew him loved him for exactly who he was.

He is survived by his longtime partner, Rayann Brown and their son, Ryan T. Juckett; his stepson, Adam F. Brown; and his beloved granddaughters, Baylie Rae Brown and Kali Elizabeth Rose Brown.

Just happened to run across the obituary of my brother Tom. Lost contact with him decades ago. I'm happy to hear of his positive affect on those who loved him. Would love to connect with his family there.
