“ Dad,

It's hard to believe it's been two weeks since you left us for a better place. I was with you when you took your last breath. Although my heart broke I was happy and relieved knowing you were finally out of pain. You fought the fight until you could fight no longer with courage like no other.

Our relationship will always be special to me. I will miss our Sunday football texts, our Christmas Eve seven fishes, the vacations we took together, summers at the beach and all of the wonderful memories we made. Thank you for your wisdom and guidance and being there for me when I needed you.

Rest easy dad, because we all know you certainly deserve it. I will love and miss you forever and carry you in my heart always. Until we are together again....love you, dad.

“ Ten years ago I received an amazing gift, I met Chris and Chic. Together they welcomed me into their circle of friends and family. We have shared many meals, holiday gatherings and a great friendship that I cherish. I have witnessed the tremendous love they have for each other and shared so many good times and laughter with them. I am very sad that Chic has passed and I am truly blessed to have known him. Heaven is shining brighter now with his light. Rest easy Chic. My heart and thoughts are with you Christine. Love you, Beth
