“ In 1965 we had just moved to New Hampshire. Trying to make friends we invited Tim and his brothers to a Halloween party. Tim was so kind and so gentle. He was afraid of everything that was going on but he kept on smiling and we had a wonderful time. He dunked for apples and he got one with a quarter in it. Memories of a childhood. Glad I finally got to say something. It's been a long time

“ *Will miss you terribly Uncle Tim. So glad to have so many memories with you and Terry. Couldn't ask for a better aunt and uncle. You both are truly a dream come true. We are lucky to have you. Us kids were just talking about how sad it is when families separate and drift apart. The two of you never allowed that. You were always there for us. Always involved in our lives and then our kids as well. I will always appreciate and admire that. I'm lucky to have had the opportunity to work for you and learn your trade and have fun while doing it! Thank you for always being there and just being you
