I'm just finding this out. Tracy and I became friends at the Greens Farms Elementary school in Westport, Connecticut in third grade. We were very good friends and I can say she was one of the funniest people I had ever met. We moved to different locations and lost touch for years. We reconnected on Face Book a number of years ago. I was told by a fellow friend she had passed. I am so sad to get this notice. RIP Tracy, I love you!
