“ I met Viki in 2010 when I came back home to California from Kansas. She was my dads next door neighbor and quickly became my friend. P-nut would keep us laughing. Shortly before she left California she taught me to make spaghetti and meatballs "the real Italian way"...and swore me to secrecy when she gave be the recipe. She was a wonderful woman and I'm glad that she was able to touch my life. I will never forget her love for Brittney. I've never seen a mother more in love with and proud of their child...fly with the angels Viki <3

“ Viki,

I have put this off because it still seems like it's one long nightmare. Just looking out our picture window is painful because all I see is sky and to know you are up there is just so surreal that I have to look away.

As your sister-in-law and the aunt to your beautiful daughter, all I can do is try and honor what you cherished most and try to keep your family close to one another. I can't guarantee that for Peanut (note the proper name) because as you know she and John don't get along but we will work on that.

Thank you Viki for all you have given to our children and the entire family. A piece of you will live on forever with us all.

Love you always,

Sue

“ I am so truly sorry for your loss. I was a young girl when my older siblings met Viki and Mark. I will always remember her and my brother Joey going to Prom and her prom dress, reminded me of the old south and the movie stars from then, She was a beautiful woman and she reminded me of a beautiful movie star in the dress. I am sorry for you loss but she is at peace and watching over all of you. with all my heart, Lori

“ I would like to send my deepest sympathy to the Anzalone and Montecalvo family. Although I haven't seen Viki in many years I have been blessed to have been invited in their home with open arms many many times. Viki came from a family filled with warmth and unconditional love . She had been blessed to have a wonderful Mom Gloria and her dearly departed sister Marie and 2 loving and caring brothers John and Mark and many cousins who loved her very very much. I am truly honored to know that I was able to see Viki's contagious smile and to share some childhood memories in the Montecalvo household and for that I am deeply grateful. It is often said" How do you want to be remembered? I will remember you Viki for unforgettable smile and sweet disposition and the love you had for your family. May God wrap his arms around you and smile back at you and direct you to the Mom and can you please tell her that the Red Sox won the World Series? She would want to know that . . . God bless Viki and may God bless and watch over your brothers. MAY YOUR SMILE LIGHT UP THE HEAVENS. Paul Brandano and The Brandano Family

“ My condolences to Vikis family, she was such a great person and we had so much fun growing up together. Another one of my funniest memories was when she dressed as a cheerleader and ran around Linden caked on make-up and decked out with pig tails and all for Halloween and was just yelling random stuff.. Viki rest in piece my love you are now with your mom & sis.

“ My heart is going to be missing a piece that can never be filled . Emily will always "OK" you. She misses you already. We will forever cherish all the time "the 4 girls" spent together. I am grateful for all of our sleepovers we did get to have. You are one of a kind. I love you so much. Everything to come just won't be what it could have been. I will do my best to be everything Brittney needs. I miss you so much it hurts. Some day we will be together again and I know you will be pushing your way to the gate to meet me. Peace Baby, rest now you are in gods hands.

You were like my second daughter and I loved you more than I could save. As time goes by we lost touch but never love. When we did talk we always talked of our love. It is so hard to see this happened to you so young. Gods choice, surly not mine. I know that what we all lost is what your Mom and Marie gained. You will be in my heart forever. As I talk to my love ones that has past, I will be adding you in my conversations,
