

Vincent J. Paolini III

May 27, 1949 - March 30, 2014

Lawrence, MA – Vincent James “Pao” Paolini, III, 64, of Lawrence, formerly of Hampton and Seabrook, died Sunday, March 30, 2014 at Colonial Heights Nursing Home in Lawrence with loving family by his bedside after an extended illness.

He was born May 27, 1949 in Boston, a son of the late Vincent J. and Erna (Brand) Paolini, Jr.

Jimmy was raised in Winthrop and Saugus, MA and graduated from Saugus High. He was a star football player at Saugus and went to Boston University on scholarship. He graduated from the University of Prince Edward Island, Canada before moving to Seabrook in the early 1970s. He relocated to Hampton in the late 1970s where he had made his home until falling ill and moving to Lawrence. Jimmy loved his family, adored his grandchildren and was a dear friend to many. He will be missed by all who knew and loved him.

He is survived by his daughter, Deirdre Kurland and her husband Kevin and his grandchildren, Shane, Alexandria and Seth of Seabrook; his sisters, Elizabeth Brand of St. Augustine, FL and Robbin Peters and her husband Steve of Palm Coast, FL; his brother Stephen Paolini and his wife Laurel of Tewksbury, MA and several nieces, nephews, cousins and close friends.

Services will be private. Arrangements are by the Remick & Gendron Funeral Home - Crematory, Hampton. Please visit www.RemickGendron.com to view Jimmy's memorial Web site, sign the tribute wall or for directions.

“ Dear Paolini Family, The Super Bowl ad "Like a Girl" reminded me that when I was in, I think, the 5th grade, in Winthrop, MA, I had a secret crush on "Jimmy" Paolini. (Totally unrequited--he had a thing for Elisa Paci.) I was the opposing pitcher on our softball teams. I was instructed that I shouldn't try to strike him out or he wouldn't like me. Essentially, I was advised to pitch "like a girl."

On a whim, I looked him up and am sorry to see that he passed not even a year ago. And I smiled to see that he became a "star football player"--that would fit!

I offer you condolences--and this memory.
