

Violette M. Madden

December 31, 2025

Manchester - Violette M. Madden, 87, of Manchester, passed on New Year's Eve 2025. She was a lifelong resident of Manchester NH and worked for Sylvania most of her life till her retirement.

She was an animal lover and gave up her garage to all the stray cats in her neighborhood and fed all the cats and wildlife that came to her door. She loved everything from cute and cuddly to exotics and arachnids. She was a unique, sweet, loving person and never turned anything away.

Violette is survived by several nieces and nephews all up and down the east coast.

She was predeceased by her parents Romeo (in 1970) and Angelina (in 1999) Berlinguette of Goffstown and her husband of 58 years Thomas Madden in 2019. She was also predeceased by her sisters, Lorraine Williams of FL, Juliette Guild of Manchester and a nephew, Kenny Guild.

All services will be private.
