

Virginia N. Paugh

November 30, 1939 - July 16, 2013

Seabrook Beach – Virginia N. Paugh, 73, of Seabrook Beach, died suddenly on Tuesday, July 16, 2013 at Exeter Hospital with loving family by her side.

Virginia was born November 30, 1939 in Fitchburg, MA, the daughter of the late Michael F. and Teresa (Pancare) Marrone

She was raised in Fitchburg and graduated from Fitchburg High with the Class of 1958. After school she married and settled in Leominster, MA to raise her family. Virginia and her family had summered at Seabrook Beach for many years and moved there permanently several years ago. She was a shrewd businesswoman, in addition to assisting her children getting started in business, she had owned and operated the Kon Tiki Lounge in Salisbury, MA and RumRunners Entertainment Complex in Key West, FL. Virginia's family was always the most important part of her life and spending time with them made her very happy. Her home was always open to her children's friends when it was time for dinner, especially Sunday dinner. She always had enough sauce and meatballs for whomever would be there. Virginia was very strong when it came to Italian family traditions and values, found humor in almost everything, and if something went wrong, her everlasting words would be "It is what it is."

She is survived by her children, Ronald E. Paugh, Michael L. Paugh and his fiancée Alexandra Daly and Teresa Quinn and her husband Robert, all of Seabrook Beach; her grandchildren, Nicole Quinn, Noelle Quinn and Rorri Virginia Paugh; her brother, Michael J. Marrone and his longtime companion Elizabeth Jankowski of Fitchburg; her sister-in-law Nancy Marrone of Hampton and FL; her nephews, Dante Marrone of Key West, Nico Marrone of Delray Beach FL, Enzo and Giovanni Marrone, her great nephew Anthony Marrone and his mom Stephanie Rigdon, all of Fitchburg, her aunts, uncles and many cousins.

In addition to her parents, she was predeceased by her nephew, Michael Marrone.

Visiting hours will be from 5 – 8 PM on Monday, July 22, 2013 in the Remick & Gendron Funeral Home-Crematory, 811 Lafayette Rd., Hampton. A mass of Christian burial will be celebrated at 10 A.M. on Tuesday, July 23, 2013 at St. Elizabeth of Hungary Church, Route 1A and Lowell St., Seabrook Beach. Family and friends are respectfully invited. Burial will be private.

Ronnie, Michael, Teresa, children, & family. I know you do not need to be told. Your Mother was such a wonderful, beautiful person, inside and out. I'll always remember how very well your Mother treated me while working at the Tiki and in Leominster when I stayed with you all for a while. You Mother touched so many people with her caring and loving ways. I will always remember and loved how she laughed. Unique and beautiful. I am sorry I am unable to attend the services, but my heart will be with you all. From deep within my heart, I will not say good bye Ginny. I will say farewell for now and pray that we meet again in the Kingdom of God. My thoughts and prayers are with you all, always. Love you guy's. Phil McGowan
