

Walter S. Marston

February 8, 1928 - March 11, 2016

Walter S. Marston

Amesbury, MA – Walter Stanley Marston, 88, of Amesbury, passed away on Friday, March 11, 2016 at the Maplewood Care and Rehabilitation Center in Amesbury where he had been living due to his failing health.

Walter was born in North Hampton, NH on February 8, 1928, a son of the late Clarence D. and Doris (Woodburn) Marston. He lived on the seacoast his entire life and had worked at Hampton Concrete for nearly 30 years. Walter was a simple hard-working man with a sharp sense of humor and a keen wit. He loved animals, especially his dogs, and enjoyed living near the beach. He was always taking long walks, sometimes up to 10 miles at a time. He was a gardener, enjoyed nature and cross country skiing.

He served his country honorably and was a proud Army Veteran of WWII.

He is survived by his sisters, Dorothea “Dolly” Silver, Shirley Whenal and Brenda Carter and his brothers, Floyd, Ralph and Keith Marston.

Walter was predeceased by his sisters, Rosemary Verno, Gloria Hanley, Lucille Washburn and Judith Smith and his brothers, George, Richard and Dennett Marston.

A graveside service will be held on Sunday, March 20, 2016 at 1:00 pm at the Center Cemetery on Post Rd. in North Hampton. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the New Hampshire SPCA, PO Box 196, Stratham, NH 03885. Assistance with arrangements was by the Remick & Gendron Funeral Home – Crematory, Hampton.

“ My husband (Walter Allen Marston, son of Clarence) and I used to visit with Walter and as many of the others as we could every summer up in NH. It was such a treat to spend time with him and the rest of the family. I'm sorry to hear he's gone, I'm sure he'll be missed by all. Best of luck and love to all from the extended family in Colorado.

“ I will always remember Uncle Walts smile and the crinkle around his eyes! He was always quiet and standing back, always watching with that smile!! Made me think he was a very wise man.
