

Wayne T. Auclair

November 20, 1950 - August 17, 2024

Hampton – Wayne T. Auclair, 73, of Hampton, passed away peacefully on Saturday, August 17, 2024.

He was born on November 20, 1950 in Haverhill, MA a son of the late George and Victoria (Iasimone) Auclair. Raised in Bradford, MA, he graduated from Haverhill High School and later North Essex Community College with a degree in mathematics.

Wayne started his career working for New England Telephone, but soon his entrepreneurial spirit took over and he opened his own machine shop. He worked as an industrial mechanic and machinist for over 30 years, with clients and projects throughout the New England region, including the Memorial Bridge that connects Portsmouth to Kittery, Maine.

An avid musician, he played drums for several bands, even being invited up to play “Sing, Sing, Sing” for Buddy Rich during one of his concerts. He also enjoyed skiing, camping, going to the beach, and spending time with his family.

Wayne shared 52 years of marriage with his wife Denise (Kibler) Auclair of Hampton whom he married in 1972. They lived in Plaistow, NH and raised their family there for 20 years before moving to Ormond Beach, FL and subsequently Hampton, NH.

In addition to his wife, surviving family members include his children, Allison Auclair of Amesbury, MA and Eric Auclair and his wife Stephanie of Plaistow, NH; siblings, George Auclair and his wife Pauline of North Andover, MA and Joyce Meuse and her husband Walter of Daytona, FL; grandchildren, Sophia and Jason Manetakis and Jakey and Sammy Auclair and several nieces.

Visitation will be held from 1:30 – 2:00 PM on Saturday, August 24, 2024 with a prayer service immediately following at 2 PM in the Remick & Gendron Funeral Home-Crematory, 811 Lafayette Road, Hampton, NH 03842.

Relatives and friends are respectfully invited. Live streaming will be available for those who are not able to join in person.
