

Wayne A. Skoglund

August 18, 1946 - August 12, 2023

Anna, IL - Wayne Allan Skoglund, 76 died Sat, Aug 12, 2023 at his home in Anna, IL with his wife and beloved dog by his side. He was born Aug 18, 1946 in Quincy Ma, the son of John Harry and June Helen Durling Skoglund. He married Nancy Alston on Jan 3, 1971, at the Congregational Church in Hampton, NH. He is survived by his wife Nancy Skoglund, Daughter Elizabeth Skoglund (Travis Powell) son Christopher (Erica Skoglund); four grandchildren Eli and Tanner Powell, Hazel and Iris Skoglund; a brother Stephen Skoglund; a sister Melissa Marston. He was preceded in death by his parents and by brother David Skoglund.

Wayne served in the US Army as well as the VT and NH National Guard. He graduated from Winnacunnet High School in 1964, from UNH in 1970 and studied for his masters in accounting at NH college.

Wayne and his wife lived in Hampton Falls for over 30 years. He represented the town serving on the Winnacunnet and Hampton Falls school boards for many years. He worked in the seacoast area for over 30 years as a commercial lender. In his retirement years he was able to pursue his love for gardening especially roses.

Wayne was an outgoing, warm and kind person always ready to meet a new friend. As a young man he enjoyed sports and was always a fan of all Boston teams. He was the biggest fan of his children and their sport endeavors. He frequently traveled hours to watch swimming or water polo event, even acting as groom his daughter's horses during her equation competitions.

He adored his grandkids and was always there to lend a supportive shoulder to laugh or cry on. Whether he would admit or not he was very supportive of his wife and her penchant for bringing home wounded felines. He and his faithful lily often spent time offering comfort to a host of little ones. He is greatly missed by many.

A graveside service will be held in Hampton Falls, NH in June for friends and family.
