“ Will,

I am so thankful for the time we spent together and am going to miss you immensely. It has been an absolute joy making music with you for the past three years. Through all your hard work you always had that wonderful sense of humor and I can hear your voice now, speaking in a thick accent, “I kiidd, I kiidd,” or “thank you, thank you, I’ll be here all week” after saying something witty.

Whether you were beat boxing “boots n’ cats’n’boots’n’cats,” singing a vocal banjo solo, or belting out a high note on the last note of a song, your love for music combined with your sense of humor was infectious. So much laughter with you each week. Your determination and innate sense of rhythm when playing your snare drum, or percussion setting on the keyboard was incredible.

Will, you could go from being so silly to incredibly sincere in an instant and the openness and sincerity in which you shared your feelings was so beautiful.

Tracey, my heart is with you. You were, and are, Will’s heart and hero. You always knew what he was capable of and that’s where you set the bar. Time and time again Will came up to meet that bar, often passing it, with your guidance and support.

You are both in my heart.

*With love,
Marie*

“ Sweet Will,

You touched my life and I will always carry you in my heart. You made me laugh and you made me cry. It was a gift to be one of your PT's during your rehabilitation. I'm so sad for your loss Tracey. I am lost for words. You have been such an amazing Mother, a truly dedicated advocate for Will. Love and Peace to all of you.

You were the most amazing person Will'Yum. Always working on your car.. Staying up all night putting lambo doors on; adding stickers for the front doors, never the back doors, you didn't like stickers on the back.. We were always either working on the car, at new england pizza, driving up and down the strip at the beach.. at least 7 times every time with the music as loud as it could go. I think there were like 10 of us!. Or you could find us at the pet store! You and your fish tanks!!

You are the best. Heaven gained an Angel, You will always be loved and missed. You are an amazing person - Always & Forever. Xox “ William..

I miss you so much. I miss our dance parties in the morning while you were getting ready for the day. I miss watching your little head bump back and forth to the music. You had such a kind soul and inside of you was the hugest heart ❤️ Sometimes I would be tense and stressed and I would come in to work with you and everything else didn't matter. You taught me how to be humble.. not to care what others think. I was there to work with you but our relationship and my relationship with your family became much more than that. Each day that passes I find it a little harder and not a little easier I am hoping that you are now at peace.. I am hoping that some good will turn out of this and your family can also be at peace. I love you more than you know 💕
