“ Heather and Zane’s family, I am sorry for the loss of Zane. I worked for many, many years with Zane at the Dover Shaw’s and North Hampton Shaw’s. We had many conversations over the years. He was always happy to talk about interesting topics and especially music, cats and anything in nature like birds. Many a time I dragged him into helping me solve my Wordle puzzle for the day. We talked about saving money, how driving a car into the ground and not having a car payment was such a money saver. If an old Camry was in the parking lot in the early morning then Zane was in the building! It is hard to rationalize all the years of work he did while building his retirement and pension savings and not being able to enjoy it. So very sad:(He really was a nice person and it is sad his life was cut short. Rest in peace my friend,

Brenda Salisbury
